

Junior College Testing Conversation

- PSAT preparation
 - Get ready for the SAT and ACT
 - Method Test Prep and other prep options
 - Get ready for the search!
- The bottom right corner of the slide features several decorative concentric circles in a lighter shade of blue, resembling ripples in water.

Get PSAT ready!

- PSAT will be held on October 15th during school hours. No cost to students! All juniors will take the test
- Review the Student Guide that you were given today. Missed your flex lesson? Pick it up in the Counseling Office

Plan out future test dates

- We recommend taking both the SAT and the ACT at least once in junior year!
- Testing dates are show on handouts provided First test dates might be: March (SAT) and April (ACT). This gives time to prepare between your PSAT and the SAT! Other test dates later in May or June are good, too!

Tools for Preparation!

- PSAT results will be available in December. Use your personalized MyCollege Quickstart to review your results when they are in
- Method Test Prep: this is a free and comprehensive tool to prepare for both SAT and ACT. Access this through your Career Cruising account
- Check the School Counseling Website for additional local testing prep resources

Next Steps

- Counselors will be working with juniors again in flex in two weeks to begin the College Search process in Naviance
- College Visits at BHS: Recommended for information-gathering, BUT we do not recommend missing an academic class in order to meet with the college rep!!
